Parade Participant Rules:

- No motorcycles or ATVs pulling entries. (Some exception may apply through prior authorization.)
- Floats can be no higher than 14 feet and must be able to maneuver around corners.
- Floats must be pulled and cannot be self-propelled.
- Drivers must be a minimum of 18 years old and all vehicles must have liability insurance.
- No selling of any items during the parade. (This includes wards, Scouts, etc.)
- Do not squeal tires or rev engines.
- Limit stop times to 30 seconds.
- No vehicles will be allowed in the high school parking lot where parade committee is lining up participants. Only the vehicles pulling entries will be allowed. Please let your parade participants know this, as well as the parents of any youth who will be participating. We will have rides available on 4-wheelers or golf carts, if needed.

Participants acknowledge by signing below that they are responsible for any injury or damage resulting from their activity in this event, and Fremont County Pioneer Days Committee is not liable for any damages or injuries. I understand that my vehicle will have adequate liability insurance and a licensed driver at least 18 years old.
